Welcome

to the Broadway Children's School of Oakland 2019 Annual Silent Auction & Fundraising Gala, March 16, 2019.

Thank you for supporting Broadway Children's School of Oakland!

BCSO is a non-profit preschool run by a volunteer Board of Trustees with the help and financial support of the Broadway community. We are committed to offering a top- quality preschool experience to a diverse population at a cost affordable to as many families as possible. Your support this evening and throughout the year provides valuable scholarships, benefits to our superb teachers, and yard and facility improvements.

One of the most important assets to our school is our wonderful staff, and we sincerely thank them...

Director: Diana Davis

Assistant Director: Jennifer McManus

Marianne Carrasco, Rainbow Room
Jacqueline Gorbutt, T/Th Sunshine Room

Our gratitude also goes out to our generous sponsors, donors, and to all of the BCSO families who have contributed time and energy to make this event a success! A complete list of donors and sponsors can be found at the end of this program.

From the Board President

At Broadway Children's School of Oakland, children and parents are guided through critical times in our lives by a truly extraordinary team of educators, and by one another. Our learning here happens over a relatively short period of time, primarily through our interactions, yet there is an enduring spirit in the program and in the community that cultivates kindness, openness, respect, and joyful learning. This essence greatly enriches our experiences and relationships at BCSO.

This has been an exciting year of transition in Broadway's history: Veteran BCSO teachers Diana and Jennifer gracefully stepped into leadership positions to fill Carrie Hill's big shoes; three fantastic new teachers, Cirila, Larry and Sonia, joined the team, following beloved teacher Kathy Kenworthy's retirement in June; and Sunshine Room parent Nicole Price became the school's inspired new Business Manager, with generous support from her dedicated predecessor, Kathy Wong, who retired in December. This is a remarkable amount of change for one small organization in less than one year! What is even more remarkable, however, is how natural these transitions have felt, and how little the boat has rocked from the perspectives of students, parents, and even the Board of Trustees. Again, that enduring spirit of Broadway seems to pervade.

So, let's take a moment (or a whole evening!) to think about what exactly lies therein, and to celebrate the greatness of this little school and its ever-growing community of staff, families, alumni and supporters. People may leave BCSO—to retire, graduate, or move on in some way—but they stay connected and supportive. The more I learn about Broadway through the people and the stories that have shaped its history, the more deeply I believe that this place will continue, and must continue, to endure for a very, very long time.

Your support of Broadway Children's School of Oakland is so very much appreciated! On behalf of the Board of Trustees and many hundreds of grateful BCSO families, thank you for contributing. The school simply could not survive and thrive without volunteer efforts, charitable contributions, and the ongoing engagement of staff, families, and other community members.

Kudos and special thanks to Iliana Morton, Development and Fundraising (and Auction!) Committee Chair; Bonnie Chan, Auction Solicitations Chair; Alexis Bornoff, Auction Food and Beverage Coordinator; Vinci Chen and Erica Wagner, Decorations Coordinators; Sharon Demant, artwork design; and the team of volunteers for the care and countless hours spent making this fundraiser a success.

With love and gratitude,

Jessie Kael
BCSO Board of Trustees Chair
